Shanty Bay Golf & Country Club is a prestigious, flawlessly manicured located in Oro-Medonte. The busy club hosts golf leagues that offer an inclusive playing environment. The 272-acre site boasts picturesque fairways making it the perfect golf club to add to your social schedule. As well as two creeks and four ponds to add some dynamic to the series of challenges the golf course presents. The course includes 27-holes to keep golfers sharp and skill up to par, a large driving range for practice and 10 bunkers that will test players limits. The different nines are sprawled on the property's meticulously managed greens. Members and guests can take advantage of the full practice centre and enjoy three separate nines which give them three different varieties of golfing experiences and don't require a large time commitment while keeping things fresh. In addition to golf, the club is fully equipped with a full service restaurant and clubhouse to host weddings, as well as corporate events. The grounds are conveniently located just off of Highway 11 & just east of Highway 400. It is also less than 15 minutes away from Barrie & 60 minutes from Toronto. In an increasingly popular area, while still offering a country feel, Shanty Bay is
