Beautiful building available on the new majestic Main Street of Huntsville. This former church has great curb appeal and the inside makes this offering very unique when looking for lease spaces. Hardwood floors, lots of sunlight, soaring cathedral ceilings makes the upper hall stand out while the back section would be ideal for an office setting. The lower level offers a great bonus area with a finished space for additional office area and 2 large rooms for storage. So all together, this space offers a large area for a shop - a back area for an office and a lower level with storage and additional workspace. Main floor and lower level have washrooms. Front door entry an additional side entry. (id:37775)
